Informational Workshop
on the
4th Round of the New Markets Tax Credit Program
($3.5 Billion Available)

August 4, 2005
1:00 p.m. EDT

The Department of the Treasury's CDFI Fund will once again broadcast an Information Workshop on the 4th round of the New Markets Tax Credit Program. The Informational Workshop will be broadcast through the HUD TV network. Potential applicants that are interested in attending will view this live and interactive broadcast at one of HUD's 81 Field Offices located across the country.

Registration is required and will open at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, July 18, 2005 through the CDFI Fund's website.

This Informational Workshop will provide information to organizations potentially interested in applying to the 4th round of the NMTC Program. $3.5 billion in tax credit authority is available through this round of the program to certified Community Development Entities (CDEs). The NMTC Allocation Application deadline is September 21, 2005.

During the broadcast, representatives from the CDFI Fund will provide an overview on a range of topics including: certification as a CDE; the Notice of Allocation Availability (NOAA) which governs the NMTC Program; and the application review. Time has been allotted to ask the presenters questions.
