

In this week's special 2020 Election Results Edition of Tax Credit Tuesday, Michael J. Novogradac, CPA, and Peter Lawrence, director of public policy and government relations at Novogradac, discuss what we know so far about the 2020 election, including the race between President Donald Trump and former Vice President Joe Biden to 270 electoral votes for the presidency, and insight on some key races for seats in the U.S. House and Senate. They also talk about some of the surprises of the 2020 election results. They wrap up by talking about how the election results might affect community development legislation in the upcoming lame duck session.

Summaries of each topic:

1. Presidential Election Update (1:47-9:54)
2. Senate Election Update (9:55-17:39)
3. House Election Update (17:40-22:29)
4. General Election Observations (23:00-27:12)
5. 2020 Lame Duck Session (27:13-36:47)
