FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Novogradac Promotes Dayle Dalling to Principal in metro Philadelphia Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes 12 to Principal Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated Dayle Dalling to principal. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation, renewable energy and opportunity zones, also promoted 11 of Dalling’s colleagues to principal. Dalling works out of Novogradac’s metro Philadelphia office.

“We could not be happier to announce Dayle’s new role as principal,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “Dayle continues to help grow the enterprise through conference presentations at both Novogradac sponsored and state-sponsored housing conferences. Furthermore, he is effective at forming strong relationships with his clients.”

“I am excited to take on the new responsibilities that come with my promotion to principal,” said Dalling.

Dalling has extensive experience with affordable housing transactions and specializes in low-income housing tax credits, historic rehabilitation tax credits, renewable energy tax credits and new markets tax credits. He also works with equity sponsors in equity fund audit and tax consulting, as well as auditing requirements of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and nonprofit organizations. Dalling has worked extensively on financial statement audits, tax return preparation and final cost certification audits for numerous organizations, including nonprofit organizations, small local governments, corporations and individuals. He received his bachelor’s degree in accounting from Brigham Young University–Idaho and is a member of the AICPA. Dalling is licensed in Pennsylvania, Georgia and Idaho as a certified public accountant.
