Novogradac Promotes Genie Goricki to Principal in Cleveland Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes 12 to Principal Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated Genie Goricki to principal. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation, renewable energy and opportunity zones, also promoted 11 of Goricki’s colleagues to principal. Goricki works out of Novogradac’s Cleveland office.

“We are happy to announce Genie’s new role as principal,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “Genie is known for her extensive work with new markets tax credits (NMTCs) and community development entity certification applications.”

“I joined Novogradac as a manager in 2011. It has been exciting to see how my career has evolved over the years,” said Goricki. “I look forward to serving Novogradac’s clients in this new capacity.”

Goricki is primarily involved in accounting, auditing, taxation, consulting and compliance within the NMTC and historic tax credit industries. She works extensively in NMTC and community development entity certification applications and is a contributor to the monthly Novogradac Journal of Tax Credits. Before joining Novogradac, she had several years of experience with regional CPA firms, providing audit, accounting, tax and business advisory services to investment companies, contractors, health care organizations, small businesses and nonprofit organizations. She received a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Ohio University and is licensed in Ohio as a certified public accountant.
