GEORGIA STATE INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR REHABILITATED HISTORIC PROPERTY SFY 2012 END-OF-YEAR REPORT JULY 1, 2011–JUNE 30, 2012

BACKGROUND:

- In March 2002, the Georgia General Assembly passed into law the State Income Tax Credit for Rehabilitated Historic Property. Since January 2004, owners of historic residential and commercial properties who plan to undertake a substantial rehabilitation have been eligible to apply for the credit.
- The program is administered through the Historic Preservation Division (HPD) of the Georgia Department of Natural Resources.
- The tax credit allows 25% of qualified rehabilitation expenditures to be taken as a state income tax credit for both historic homes and income-producing structures. If the property is in a low-income target area, the credit allowed is 30%. The credit is capped at $100,000 for historic homes and $300,000 for income-producing structures.
- The State Preferential Property Tax Assessment for Rehabilitated Historic Property and the Federal Rehabilitation Investment Tax Credit are companion programs.

ELIGIBILITY:

- The property must be eligible for, or listed in, the Georgia Register of Historic Places.
- Project work must be certified as meeting DNR's Standards for Rehabilitation.
- A substantial rehabilitation test must be met.
- Part A – Preliminary Certification should be submitted to HPD before project work begins. Once the Part A is approved, the applicant has two years to complete the rehabilitation.
- Part B – Final Certification is submitted to HPD when the project is finished. After the Part B is approved, the owner applies the credit to the taxable year the rehabilitation is completed.

The Ware Hotel, located in Waycross, Ware County, was built in 1928. The owners spent over $7 million rehabilitating the former hotel into rental housing.

SFY 2012 ECONOMIC IMPACT OF TAX INCENTIVES PROGRAMS:

Georgia's preservation tax incentives programs can play a significant role in the economic development of communities throughout the state by creating jobs, spurring neighborhood and downtown revitalization, increasing and supporting cultural and heritage tourism, encouraging local investment, and generating increased tax revenues.

In SFY 2012, proposed and completed rehabilitations utilizing the tax incentive programs included projects in Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Decatur, Fairburn, Fitzgerald, Ft. Valley, Hapeville, Hartwell, Jekyll Island, Macon, Norcross, Savannah, Thomasville, Tifton, Tybee Island, Valdosta, Warrenton, Waycross, and Waynesboro.

- 58 preliminary certification applications for proposed work were submitted representing 22 historic home rehabilitations and 36 income-producing property rehabilitations equaling:
 - $63,506,239 in investment
 - $4.7 million in potential tax credits
 - 1,149 jobs created*
 - $48 million in salary and wages generated*
 - 678 additional jobs being created elsewhere*

- 36 final certification applications for completed projects were submitted, representing 11 historic home rehabilitations and 25 income-producing property rehabilitations equaling:
 - $37,285,155 in investment
 - $3.9 million in potential tax credits
 - 675 jobs created*
 - $28 million in salary and wages generated*
 - 398 additional jobs created elsewhere*

* Statistics calculated using multipliers provided in HPD's Good News in Tough Times report available on HPD's website.

The Waynesboro Academy, located in Waynesboro, Burke County, was built as a school in 1936. Bridgeland Development LLC and G. Randall Hammond & Co. spent $4.5 million rehabilitating the building and constructing two new, detached one-story buildings to create 19 senior living residences. Most of the original, historic fabric was retained including: metal windows, wood floors, plaster walls, classroom doors and transoms, chalkboards, and wooden "cubbies."
