COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS FUND

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Interim Rule Released for the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program

January 31, 2013

Washington, DC- The U.S. Department of the Treasury's Community Development Financial Institutions Fund (CDFI Fund) released today the interim rule for the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program, which has the potential to inject new and substantial capital into our nation's most distressed communities. Through the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program, eligible Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFIs) or their designees will issue bonds that are guaranteed by the Federal government and use the bond proceeds to extend credit to the broader CDFI industry for community development purposes and for long-term community investments. Treasury may guarantee up to 10 bonds per year, each at a minimum of $100 million, with a total of up to $1 billion in bonds guaranteed per year.

Such investments may include the development of small businesses, commercial real estate, housing units, shelters, charter schools, and daycare or healthcare centers, among others.

Prospective CDFI Bond Guarantee Program applicants, community and housing development trade groups, and members of the general public are invited to provide written comments on the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program's interim rule. The interim rule describes the requirements and parameters for the program's implementation and administration including among others: application eligibility, application review, guarantee approval, eligible uses of bond loan proceeds, reporting, and compliance monitoring.

KEY PROGRAM DISTINCTIONS

- Unlike other CDFI Fund programs, the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program does not offer grants, loans, or tax credit allocations; instead, it is a federal credit subsidy program. The bond proceeds are debt instruments that must be repaid.
- The CDFI Bond Guarantee Program is designed to function at no cost to taxpayers.
- Bonds (including principal, interest, and call premiums) will be 100 percent guaranteed by the U.S. government. The Federal Financing Bank will be the sole purchaser of bonds issued under the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program.

HOW YOU CAN PREPARE

- Attend the CDFI Fund's information sessions and application workshops on the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program.
- Standardize loan servicing procedures to facilitate smooth and equitable lending for eligible purposes.
- Draft a plan for proposed sources and uses of funds for Eligible CDFIs.
- Review the Federal Financing Bank's Lending Policy

- Review certain Office of Management and Budget circulars (particularly, Circulars A-11 and A-129) for further rules and guidance for Federal credit programs.
