ARRA

American Recovery and Reinvestment Act

The Recovery Act was passed by Congress and signed into law by President Obama on February 17, 2009. The purpose of the $787 billion Recovery package is to jump-start the economy to create and save jobs. The Act specifies appropriations for a wide range of federal programs, and increases or extends certain benefits under Medicaid, unemployment compensation, and nutrition assistance programs.

To date Mississippi State University has received 28 awards totaling $7,438,186.43. To see a complete list click on the link below.
