Notice of Public Forums

New Hampshire Housing has commenced preparation of the 2013 Qualified Allocation Plan (QAP). In an attempt to prepare the 2013 QAP, New Hampshire Housing invites you to participate in two upcoming public forum discussions. The first public forum will deal with cost containment measures with a special focus on construction related matters. In addition to LIHTC developers, the forum is being targeted to design and construction professionals in an attempt to solicit ideas and get some initial reaction to potential changes that are being considered to both the QAP and Design and Construction Standards.

When: 9 a.m. to noon, Wednesday, Feb. 8, 2012

Where: Audubon Center, PSNH Room, 84 Silk Farm Road, Concord, NH

The second public forum will also deal with cost containment measures, but will focus on other non-construction related matters. Discussion topics include:

- Senior Set Aside
- Tenant Services
- Other QAP topics

When: 9 a.m. to noon, Wednesday, Feb. 15, 2012

Where: Audubon Center, PSNH Room, 84 Silk Farm Road, Concord, NH

Please RSVP by February 1 to Heather at hsorrentino@nhhfa.org indicating which forums you will attend.
