LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 38(a) allows a credit for the taxable year in an amount equal to the sum of 1) the business credit carryforwards carried to the taxable year, 2) the amount of the current year business credit, plus 3) the business credit carrybacks carried to the taxable year.

Under § 38(b)(1), the amount of the current year business credit includes the investment credit under § 46. The rehabilitation credit is a component of the § 46 investment credit.

Section 47(a) provides that the rehabilitation credit for any taxable year is the sum of 10 percent of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures with respect to any qualified rehabilitated building other than a certified historic structure, and 20 percent of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures with respect to any certified historic structure.

Under § 47(b), qualified rehabilitation expenditures with respect to any qualified rehabilitated building shall be taken into account for the taxable year in which the qualified rehabilitated building is placed in service.

Section § 50(d), makes applicable rules similar to the rules of former § 48(d) (relating to certain leased properties). Under former § 48(d)(1), a person (other than a person referred to in former § 46(e)(1) who is a lessor of property may (at such time, in such manner, and subject to such conditions as are provided by regulations prescribed by the Secretary) elect with respect to any new § 38 property (other than property described in former § 48(d)(4)) to treat the lessee as having acquired such property.

Section 1.48-4(a)(1) of the income tax regulations provides that a lessor of property may elect to treat the lessee of property as having purchased the property for purposes of the credit allowed by § 38.

Section 1.48-4(a)(1)(iv) requires a statement of election to treat the lessee as a purchaser to be filed in the manner and within the time provided in § 1.48-4(f) or (g). Section 1.48-4(f)(1) provides the information that must be included in the election statement.

Under § 1.48-4(f)(2), the election statement must be filed with the lessee on or before the due date (including any extensions of time) of the lessee's return for the lessee's taxable year during which possession of the property is transferred to the lessee.

Section 301.9100-1(c) provides that the Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Code, except subtitles E, G, H, and I. Section 301.9100-1(b) provides that the term "election" includes an application for relief in respect of tax.

Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Section 301.9100-3 provides the standards the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election that does not meet the requirements of § 301.9100-2. A request for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.
