Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated March 31, 2014, from Taxpayer's representative requesting an extension of time under §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations to make an election under § 42(g)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

According to the information submitted, Taxpayer owns a project building. The building identification number assigned to the project building is BIN. Taxpayer elected on Forms 8609, Low-Income Housing Credit Allocation and Certification, to begin the credit period for the project building in Year. Taxpayer inadvertently failed to make a timely, correct election for the project building under § 42(g)(1)(B), consistent with Taxpayer's intent, as evidenced by Taxpayer's contemporaneous documentation.

Section 42(g)(1) defines qualified low-income housing project as any project for residential rental property if the project meets the requirements of § 42(g)(1)(A) or (B), whichever is elected by the taxpayer. The project meets the requirements of § 42(g)(1)(A) if 20 percent or more of the residential units are both rent-restricted and occupied by individuals whose income is 50 percent or less of area median gross income. The project meets the requirements of § 42(g)(1)(B) if 40 percent or more of the residential units are both rent-restricted and occupied by individuals whose income is 60 percent or less of area median gross income.

Section 42(l)(1) provides, in part, that following the close of the first taxable year in the credit period with respect to any qualified low-income building, the taxpayer shall certify to the Secretary (at such time and in such form and in such manner as the Secretary prescribes) (D) the election made under § 42(g) with respect to the qualified low-income housing project of which such building is a part, and (E) such other information as the Secretary may require. In the case of a failure to make the certification required by the preceding sentence on the date prescribed therefor, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no credit shall be allowable by reason of § 42(a) with respect to such building for any taxable year ending before such certification is made.

Section 301.9100-7T(b) of the temporary Procedure and Administration Regulations provides that for elections under the Tax Reform Act of 1986, the election under § 42(g)(1) must be made for the taxable year in which the project is placed in service and shall be made in the certification required to be filed pursuant to § 42(l)(1). Form 8609 serves the purpose of the certification required to be filed pursuant to § 42(l)(1) and includes the election under § 42(g)(1). Section 301.9100-7T(a)(4)(i) provides that the election under § 42(g)(1) is irrevocable.

Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards the Commissioner of Internal Revenue will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make an election.

Section 301.9100-1(b) defines the term “regulatory election” as including an election whose due date is prescribed by a regulation, revenue ruling, revenue procedure, notice, or announcement published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.

Under section 301.9100-1(c), the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Code, except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Section 301.9100-3 provides extensions of time for making elections that do not meet the requirements of § 301.9100-2.

Requests for relief under § 301-9100-3(a) will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

In the instant case, based solely on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 have been met. Accordingly, Taxpayer is granted an extension of time to make the election under § 42(g)(1)(B) for the project building identified by BIN by filing within 120 days from the date of this letter an amended Form 8609 that includes the intended election. The amended Form 8609 (along with a copy of this letter, enclosed herein) is to be sent to the following address:

No opinion is expressed or implied regarding the application of any other provisions of the Code or regulations. Specifically, we express no opinion on whether project buildings otherwise qualify for credit under § 42, including whether the project building qualifies for credit prior to issuance of the Forms 8609.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with the power of attorney on file, a copy of this letter is being sent to Taxpayer's authorized representative.

Sincerely,
Associate Chief Counsel
