

2022 Anticipated Program Schedule, 9% Tax Credits

January 2022

Preliminary Application will be posted on the Authority's web site: www.schousing.com

January 20th

Authority staff will provide information on the 2022 tax credit program and review the 2022 application procedures. Additional information and an on-line registration for the workshop will be posted on the Authority's website at www.schousing.com.

February 25th

Preliminary Applications are due along with all initial application fees required as detailed in the 2022 Qualified Allocation Plan.

March 2022

The Authority will provide all necessary Exhibits, Forms, and Instructions for completing the 9% Tax Credit Application. A separate application package must be submitted for each development.

March 14th

Scores for Phase 1 of Tax Credit Application will be posted

Week of March 14th

Authority staff will host a workshop reviewing the 2022 tax credit application and process. Additional information and an on-line registration for the workshop will be posted on the Authority's website at www.schousing.com.

May 27th

Full Applications are due along with the remaining application fees required as detailed in the 2022 Qualified Allocation Plan.

Late July 2022

Applicants will be notified of their Application point scores.

October 2022

Notification of the Final Tax Credit Reservations.