FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Housing Legislation, Regulatory Guidance, Clean Energy Opportunities Focus at Novogradac Conference in San Francisco

Novogradac to Host 2023 Affordable Housing Conference April 27-28, 2023

SAN FRANCISCO—Opportunities to expand and enhance low-income housing tax credits (LIHTC) as well as regulatory guidance that could impact affordable housing will be among the topics of conversation April 27-28, 2023, at the upcoming Novogradac 2023 Affordable Housing Conference at the Grand Hyatt in San Francisco. Conference panelists will also discuss clean energy opportunities and Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) strategies.

“There are so many great opportunities and resources available at this year’s conference,” said Jeff Nishita, CPA, a partner in Novogradac’s San Francisco office and conference co-chair. “Whether you’re a newcomer or a seasoned professional, this is a great opportunity to hear from experts about affordable housing. It’s exciting every time we do these conferences and I look forward to having this one right here in our home city of San Francisco.”

“A complex mix of factors, financial and otherwise, are impacting the low-income housing tax credit right now,” said Melissa Chung, CPA, a partner in Novogradac’s San Francisco office and conference co-chair. “Everyone in the community can benefit from coming together for this event to share ideas, learn from leaders in the industry and work together to further the goals of the affordable housing community.”

Conference panel topics will include insights from investors, a closer look at debt and lending options, understanding the complexities of developing properties as a nonprofit organization and a deep dive into the state of affordable housing in the conference’s host state of California. The full agenda can be found here.

The Novogradac 2023 Affordable Housing Conference is sponsored by Bellwether Enterprise, Boston Financial, CBRE Affordable Housing, Coats Rose, Fallbrook Financial Service Company and R4 Capital and will include exhibitor HAI Group.

In addition to the panel topics, Novogradac will host a trio of pre-conference workshops on April 26, 2023. The Running the Numbers Workshop will delve into the sources and uses of properties and other aspects of forecasting while offering insights about what investors think when looking at a property. The RAD Basics Workshop will help attendees understand how RAD works for newcomers to the program. The LIHTC Basics Workshop, which is available for in-person and virtual attendees, will provide an overview of the LIHTC world. Separate registration fees for the pre-conference workshops apply.
