Novogradac Promotes Chubb Lurya to Principal in Long Beach, California, Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes Nine to Principal Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated Justin Chubb Lurya to principal. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation and renewable energy, also promoted eight of Chubb Lurya’s colleagues to principal. Chubb Lurya works out of Novogradac’s Long Beach, California, office.

“We are very pleased to announce Justin’s promotion to principal,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “Justin has expertise across various areas—affordable housing, community development and historic preservation—which allows him to serve our clients’ varied needs.”

“I am excited for this next stage in my career where I can have an even greater impact on my clients’ successes as well as help steer Novogradac in the years to come,” said Chubb Lurya, who joined Novogradac as a staff accountant in 2012.

Chubb Lurya specializes in community development and affordable housing, including the low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC), new markets tax credit (NMTC), historic rehabilitation tax credit (HTC) and opportunity zones (OZ) industries. Chubb Lurya also has experience with nonprofit organizations and the auditing requirements of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Office of Management and Budget Uniform Guidance, California Housing Finance Agency and the California Housing and Community Development offices. In addition to providing traditional audit and tax services, he provides various consulting and forecasting services, and has worked extensively on structuring LIHTC, NMTC, HTC and OZ transactions. Chubb Lurya graduated from the University of California, Berkeley, with a bachelor’s degree in economics. He is licensed in California as a certified public accountant.
