Novogradac Promotes Ryan Goyal to Partner in Austin, Texas, Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes Eight to Partner Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated Ryan Goyal to partner Jan. 1. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation and renewable energy, also promoted seven of Goyal’s colleagues to partner. Goyal works out of Novogradac’s Austin, Texas, office.

“We are very pleased to announce Ryan’s new role as partner,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “His varied expertise with audits will certainly be helpful to our clients as he grows into this elevated role.”

“This promotion to partner has been something I’ve been working toward since I joined the firm as a manager in 2013,” said Goyal. “It means a lot to have reached this important milestone in my career.”

Goyal specializes in low-income housing and historic rehabilitation tax credits. Goyal has worked extensively with numerous real estate investors, syndicators and developers. He is experienced in financial statement audits, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development audits, tax return preparation, final cost certifications and agreed-upon procedures engagements. He also specializes in commercial and residential development. Goyal received his bachelor’s degree in accounting from Northern Illinois University and is licensed as a certified public accountant in Texas and Illinois.

Also promoted to partner were Andres Abad of the Fort Lauderdale, Florida, office; Melissa Chung of the San Francisco office; John DeJovine and David Graff of the Cleveland office; Kelly McNany Gorman of the Clark, New Jersey, office; as well as Joshua Morris and Austin Power of the Dover, Ohio, office.
