FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Affordable Housing Industry Leaders to Discuss LIHTC Opportunities for 2019 and Beyond

Novogradac to Host its 2018 Tax Credit Housing Finance Conference in Las Vegas, Nov. 29-30

LAS VEGAS – As the demand for affordable housing grows, developers, investors and other key members of the affordable housing community will gather to explore the most effective ways to meet this need, including how to expand the impact of low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) investments. The LIHTC is the nation’s leading incentive for driving private investment into affordable rental housing, helping finance more than 3 million affordable apartments since the program’s inception in 1986. Affordable housing leaders from around the nation will gather to discuss current LIHTC market conditions, best practices and more at the Novogradac 2018 Tax Credit Housing Finance Conference at The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas in Las Vegas, Nev., Nov. 29-30.

“The LIHTC is a critical resource for financing affordable housing development and preservation in this country,” said Jeff Nishita, CPA, conference chairman and partner at Novogradac & Company LLP. “Our conference is designed to keep affordable housing developers, syndicators, investors, service providers and other professionals informed on LIHTC best practices and solutions.”

Panel topics include affordable housing legislation, equity pricing and market conditions, income averaging, opportunity zones and a look at the state of the states. Networking opportunities include a young professionals’ and newcomers’ breakfast, a buffet luncheon, a Thursday evening reception and multiple networking breaks between sessions.
