Novogradac Promotes Brent Parker to Partner in Long Beach, Calif., Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes Five to Partner Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated Brent Parker to partner. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation and renewable energy, also promoted four of Parker’s colleagues to partner. Parker works out of Novogradac’s Long Beach, California, office.

“My partners and I are excited to announce Brent’s promotion to partner,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “Brent is known for his hard work and team approach, and for being very client-oriented.”

“As a partner at Novogradac, I look forward to growing our affordable housing and community development business,” said Parker, who joined Novogradac as a staff accountant in 2004.

Parker is experienced in affordable housing and community development, nonprofit organizations and public housing authorities, historic rehabilitation, and renewable energy. He has a particular focus on the low-income housing tax credit, investments in qualified opportunity funds, renewable energy tax credits, new markets tax credit and historic tax credit communities. In addition to providing various consulting and forecasting services, Parker leads extensive tax planning and tax return preparation engagements for a wide variety of clientele and works extensively on financial statement audits, reviews and agreed-upon procedures engagements. In response to growing demand, Parker has become a frequent presenter on OZ panels and workshops in several states. He is also a contributor to the Novogradac Journal of Tax Credits and leads professional development training efforts on various complex taxation concepts. Parker received a bachelor’s degree in accounting from the University of Southern California and is a certified public accountant in California.
