Novogradac Promotes George Barlow to Partner in Dover, Ohio, Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes Five to Partner Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated George Barlow to partner. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation and renewable energy, also promoted four of Barlow’s colleagues to partner. Barlow works out of Novogradac’s Dover, Ohio, office.

“The partners and I are excited to announce George’s promotion to partner,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “George is known for his high level of technical proficiency and rigorous work ethic, which contributed to his growth at the firm.”

“While spending my entire accounting career at Novogradac, I am so pleased to reach this professional milestone,” said Barlow, who joined Novogradac in 2007.

Barlow specializes in new markets tax credits (NMTCs), historic tax credits (HTCs), renewable energy tax credits (RETCs), the opportunity zones (OZ) incentive and other state tax credits and incentives. Barlow has consulted on more than 400 tax credit transactions with cumulative development financing exceeding $5 billion. He works with real estate developers, community development entities, syndicators, lenders and investors on the complex structuring, financing and syndication of NMTC, HTC, RETC and OZ transactions. He also advises on tax and regulatory matters in addition to providing traditional audit, cost certifications and tax services. Barlow earned a bachelor’s degree in accounting and master’s degree in accounting from Kent State University. He is licensed as a certified public accountant in Ohio.

Also promoted to partner were Rob Bryant of the Dover, Ohio, office; Chris Key of the Atlanta office; Brent Parker of the Long Beach, Calif., office; and Lindsey Sutton of the Austin, Texas office.
