Novogradac Promotes Lindsey Sutton to Partner in Austin, Texas, Office

National Accounting and Consulting Enterprise Promotes Five to Partner Across Country

SAN FRANCISCO—National accounting and consulting enterprise Novogradac elevated Lindsey Sutton to partner. Novogradac, which specializes in affordable housing, community development, historic preservation and renewable energy, also promoted four of Sutton’s colleagues to partner. Sutton works out of Novogradac’s Austin, Texas, office.

“The partners and I are excited to announce Lindsey’s promotion to partner,” said Michael J. Novogradac, managing partner of Novogradac. “Lindsey is known for building successful client relationships, leading to increased sales through new engagements with existing clients, as well as attracting new clients through referrals.”

“I am excited to help Novogradac continue to grow and serve our clients in my new position as partner,” said Sutton, who joined Novogradac as an analyst in 2010.

Sutton works in the Government Consulting and Valuation Advisory Services group at Novogradac and has more than 10 years of professional experience and extensive knowledge in market analysis and valuation of multifamily properties in the affordable housing community. She has performed various types of multifamily analyses, feasibility studies, rent comparability studies, partnership valuations and appraisals for residential and commercial developments funded by low-income housing tax credits and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), as well as the U.S. Department of Agricultural Rural Development and conventional developers. She also specializes in consulting for syndicators, developers and lending agencies with extensive experience for Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. Additionally, Sutton has extensive knowledge of the HUD Rental Assistance Demonstration program and has provided appraisal and other various consulting services under this program. Sutton also provides consulting services including various model building for mixed-use and multifamily assets.
